Начакова, Seprember 23вр. 1396.

Our Shanghai morning contemporary has an industrious correspondent at Canton, who makes some rather startling, and as i seems to us, reckless statements. His pet aversion clearly is the Vicerov Chanc Chin-TUNG, whom he never misses a chance of attacking. His Excellency is a clever will be relieved by the 82nd Regiment from Natal, writer and may be a capable administrator; he certainly is a patriotic one; but we doubt whether he looks with a very favourable eve on foreigners or can be called their friend. Nevertheless that is no reason up to closing hours yesterday evening. He has why he should be assailed in season and out of season, at every touch and turn, incorrect statements, published about and his policy. The N. C. Daily News correspondent seems to collect all sorts of unreliable "gun" from persons adverse to the as follows:-

as to laduos the Provincial Authorities to take precrutions against a surprise by land and sea. Gunbouts of all sorts and sizes, even captured amnualing craft, are being manned and armed ready for action at shor notice. There is a sort of inclination to get rid of all foreigners in the service, as being costly, dangerous, and useless in case of a war with a foreign Power. Chinese troops are to be trained to war in a very accommiss! manner, by allowing them to undertake filibustering been referred to the 'Nassan King-at-Arms,' expeditions against the French in Tonquin. The first sentence is, we believe, destitute of the slightest foundation. The Chinese Mandarins do not love foreigners, and some of them may even indulge in a vague sort of hope that at some distant date they may be able to rid the country of the intruders. But the Government of Peking and most of the high officials suffer no such delusions. and have no such desires. They are well aware of the value of the foreign trade of China, and they are anxious to extend it and develop the resources and the revenues of not youch for the truth of the rumour, but gives the empire. In a private telegram to the Batavia Handelsblad it is stated that the ransom, the amount of which is not given in the the situation of the released persons, the Government telegram differs materially from the private one, which says that both of them are seriously ill. Their illness strikes us as not being improbable. Perhaps this might have been the reason for Tunku Umar lowering his terms. His train of thought must have been somewhat after this fashion :- If they die I shall get nothing but severe punishment, hence, now that they are ill. I had better as soon as possible surrender them for less ransom." We hope that now the ransom has been paid, punishment will soon follow.—Batavia Dagblad Finally a bright spot worth mentioning for once is reported from Acheen. Mrs. Hansen and John Fay have been delivered out of Tunku Umar's hands for ransom. It is now the bounden daty of our Government to render Tunka Umar harmless. Every means to gain that end must be looked upon as admissible. This marander chief continues to be a standing reproach to our authority not only in Acheen but also throughout the whole of Netherands India. If he be not now punished for his evil deeds, we run the risk of very soon seeing a repetition of the Hole Cauton and Nisero affairs. We do not object to the ransoming of the Hok Canton exptives, but we do hold that the owners of the steamer should be hold responsible and the amount recovered from them."—Java Bode.

The silence of the Liberal Unionists in the Commons in the debate new going on ever the Tory Greenmont's Irish policy is beginning to attract attention. Ramours are current that the Liberal Unionists disapprove of the Irish land policy outlined by Lord Churchill

New York, 22nd August. The Sunday World's London correspondent save :- The Liberal-Unionists have already broken with the Tories. He says immediately after the speeches of Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Thomas Power O'Counor, the prominent Liberal-Unionists, together with their chiefs, Lord Hartington, Mr. Chamberlain, Sir Honry James and others, retired to a corner of segmently they disputched their whip. Mr. Caine. to Lord Randolph Churchill, with whom he had Sir Edward Thornton has been summoned im. a prolonged interview. It is believed he bore to Unionists would not be able to support the Irish land projects of the Government. This belief is further corroborated by the ominous silence Prince Alexander has summoned the National with which the party in question received the proposals contained in Lord Randolph Churchill's speach. These rumours indicate the present situation with remarkable accuracy. The Pory Government is proving itself feeble beyond the worst auticipations of its enemies. There is a-growing feeling in the House that the country s merely being triffed with by all these proposed inquiries into matters with which every member

There were 150 policemen ad bailiffs and 60 cars and boats engaged for eleven days in the proceedings. at a cost of £100 a day. The scenes were pitiful of people being steeped in poverty.

LONDON, 23rd August-It was stated in Unionist quarters last night that the protest of Hartington and Chamberlain against the announced land purchase policy of the Government has not yet met with soceptance by the Cabinet. It was anticipated last night that an announcement would be made in the Commons to-day qualifying the statements of Lord Salisbury and Churchill, so as to meet the views of the Unionist leaders. It is now believed that if such a statement is made it will fall short of the requirements of Hartington and Chamberlain. The Unionist leaders are bitterly denounced at the Tory clubs for their threatened desertion of the Ministry, and leading supporters of the Government openly state that they are in favour f standing to their guns and doing without the Injonists' aid. They take the ground that the coalition cannot last, and sooner or later another appeal to the country will have to be made. They would prefer making it at an early date, hrowing the responsibility on the Unionists of awaiting further complications. The Uninists have not fully abandoned the hopes of a satisfactory understanding on the land purchase ruestion and evictions, and a further conference will take place in the morning.

The Tory papers deny, that the Irish harvest is a failure and insist that the tenants generally are able to pay their rents and ought to be evictd if they fail to do so.
